JOAQUIM Buffet Restaurant Invites You on A Voyage with Spices

Singapore, 15 May 2009 - Joaquim Buffet Restaurant, Singaporeans favourite hangout for quality, sumptuous steamboat offerings will tantalise you with an array of specially prepared Peranakan dishes starting 15 May 2009.

Inspired by the rich and colourful history of the eclectic Peranakan culture, diners can enjoy and sample a mixed bag of tasty favourites such as Homemade Ngoh Hiang, Babi Pongteh, Nonya Curry Chicken, Gula Melaka Lor Duck, as well as an assortment of Nonya desserts that include all-time favourites Chendol, Ice Kacang and Bubor Cha Cha.

Peranakan and Baba-Nyonya are terms used to describe Malay-speaking Chinese descendants of an early Chinese community that settled in the Malay Archipelago during the 17th century. Their cuisines, known as Peranakan or Nonya cuisine combines Chinese, Malay and other influences into a unique blend. It is the result of blending Chinese ingredients and wok cooking techniques with spices used by the Malay community, incorporating local ingredients and local styles of cooking. The food is tangy, aromatic, spicy, herbal and delicious!

Additionally, take pleasure in our irresistible steamboat dinner with an array of fresh seafood, meat, leafy vegetables and a host of other local favourites, accompanied with three types of broth like herbal chicken, itek tim soup and pork and bamboo-shoot.

This special promotion is valid daily for dinner from 6pm to 10pm and is attractively priced at $25.80 nett for adults and $18.80 nett for children.

Charge to your UOB Credit Card and one dines FREE with every 4 paying adults. Terms & Conditions apply.
