Celebrate a Decadent Harvest this Mid-Autumn Festival with Pearl River Palace

Singapore, 28 July 2010 - This Mid-Autumn Festival, Pearl River Palace brings back the traditional by introducing baked mooncakes infused with three new flavours, specially handcrafted by Master Chef Tan Yong Hua.

- White Sesame, Oolong Tea Lotus Paste,
- Champagne Truffle, Hazelnuts and White Lotus Paste
- Grand Marnier Orange Dark Truffle Praline, Macadamia Nuts and Lotus Paste.

Decadent and divine, each baked flavours brims with velvety, full-bodied lotus paste and the finest of ingredients.

For chocolate lovers, enjoy the sweet indulgence of Champagne Truffle, Hazelnuts and White Lotus Paste and /or relish in the Grand Marnier Orange Dark Truffle Praline, Macadamia Nuts and Lotus Paste.

For the traditionalist, savour our handcrafted baked Double Yolk, Melon Seeds and Lotus Paste. Subtly sweet and smooth, they are the perfect accompaniment with a cup of Chinese tea.

Additionally, take delight our specially design iconic mooncake box – symbolising the iconic roof of Suntec Singapore.

Master Chef Tan Yong Hua, who helms Pearl River Palace, has a rich culinary career spanning over 20 years, many of which were at several renowned restaurants in Singapore. His culinary creations have been enjoyed by a number of dignitaries, including Mrs Hillary Clinton, Prince Albert of Monaco and many of Singapore's business and political elite. He also makes regular appearance as a guest Chef on local television and has also travelled to many cities in China in pursuit of culinary adventures.

The Mid-Autumn Festival is celebrated on the fifteen day of the eighth lunar month. It is traditionally celebrated outdoors under the moonlight, where families eat mooncakes and admire the full moon. It is also at this time that the moon's orbit is at its lowest angle to the horizon, making the moon appear brighter and larger than any other time of the year – hence the full moon association. In Chinese culture, the full moon is a symbol of peace and prosperity for the whole family. Its roundness symbolises wholeness and togetherness.

These mouth-watering bites of pleasure make for celebrated gifts. They are available from 3 – 22 September 2010 at Pearl River Palace, Level 3, Suntec Singapore Singapore International Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Corporate orders are also available.
