Pearl River Palace at Suntec Singapore Introduces New Menu and Additional Dishes

Singapore, 18 June 2008 – This July, come savour tantalizing Cantonese cuisine at its best!

Pearl River Palace at Suntec Singapore International Convention & Exhibition Centre (Suntec Singapore) will introduce a new menu and additional dishes beginning 2 July 2008. With the new menu, guests will continue to enjoy the best of Cantonese cuisine, featuring a variety of delectable dishes of the finest standards.

Highlights of the new menu include Braised Bailing Mushroom with Homemade Beancurd in Abalone Sauce, Chilled Diced Duck Meat with Preserved Turnip and Mayonnaise served in Golden Cup, Baked Sea Perch served with Crispy Grain and Lobster Sauce, Sauteed Mola-Mola Fish with Spring Onions and Shrimp Roe and Deep-Fried Oyster with Minced Garlic and Red Chilli. Rounding off the meal can include savoury desserts like Mango Sago and Pomelo with Ice Cream and Chilled Durian Pancake.

Popular signature dishes like The Washing Line Sliced Pork with Minced Garlic, Braised Pork Belly served with Mantou and Deep-fried Prawn with Wasabi Mayonnaise Salad and Diced Beef with Spring Onion in Black Pepper Sauce will still be incorporated in the new menu.

Aside from the new menu, the restaurant will also be featuring for the first time, dishes created and won by the culinary team during the recently held Food & Hotel 2008 (FHA 2008) Imperial Challenge. For a limited time only, guests can savour these delicious dishes that our team of Chefs whipped up to 'wow' the judges at the FHA 2008 Imperial Challenge. The set menus will include the delicious combination that led the team to its glory.

The FHA Imperial Challenge, organised as part of FHA 2008 is the biennial mega trade event for the food and hospitality industry. This year's challenge attracted a total of nine teams, with participation from many well-known and talented contestants from China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore and Taiwan. The preliminary rounds, which took place at the beginning of the week, had the teams whipped up a storm in the 'survival of the fittest' cook-off battle.

"At Pearl River Palace, we pride ourselves in having a team of chefs well-known for creating a variety of delightful Cantonese cuisine of the finest standards, tempting even the most jaded of palates" quips Koh Kian Leong, Director of Food & Beverage at Suntec Singapore.

Chef Mok Kit Keung, who hails from Hong Kong, is the Master Chef of Pearl River Palace. With a rich culinary career spanning over 30 years, he specialises in fine Cantonese cuisine. His culinary creations have been enjoyed by a number of dignitaries, including Russian President Vladimir Putin and many of Singapore's business and political echelons, the most recent being an invitation to the imperial palace in Morocco at the request of King Mohammed VI to prepare a royal feast.

Set in a contemporary ambience with a touch of Chinese accents, Pearl River Palace, one of two restaurants owned and managed by Suntec Singapore, offers customers a memorable gastronomic experience. The restaurant is located at Level 3 of Suntec Singapore and opens daily from 11.30am to 3.00pm for lunch and 6.30pm to 10.00pm for dinner. Advanced reservation is required.
