5 August 2002, Singapore - Suntec Singapore Appoints New Director of Operations To Enhance The Venue's World Class Standing As Asia's Top Convention Centre

Suntec Singapore International Convention & Exhibition Centre (Suntec Singapore) has appointed Mr. David Beevers as Director of Operations as of 1 August 2002. He was most recently Director of Club Development & Operations, Asia Pacific Region at The International Group of ClubCorp of America – a world leader in delivering luxury golf, private club and resort experiences.

Among his many achievements in his stellar career, David has successfully led his teams to achieve high standards and record operating profits at various Clubs at the ClubCorp of America. He brings to Suntec Singapore extensive and in-depth experience in managing leisure and hospitality operations across South East Asia, Hong Kong, China and Australia.

At The International Group of ClubCorp of America for a total of 12 years, he was most recently based in Brisbane from 1999 to 2002 and was responsible for the business development, operations, sales and marketing for both the private clubs and golf clubs in Singapore, China and Australia. Born in Britain, David speaks French and Bahasa Indonesia fluently in addition to his native language.

Suntec Singapore welcomes David Beevers onboard and looks forward to his valuable leadership in enhancing facility operations and service quality, while reinforcing Suntec Singapore's standing as a world class facility.
