Suntec Singapore Proud Sponsor of the Singapore Arts Festival 2009

Singapore, 29 May 2009 - Suntec Singapore International Convention and Exhibition Centre, Asia's leading convention centre, is pleased to support the Singapore Arts Festival 2009 for the fifth year running.

Organised by the National Arts Council, this year's festival will showcase 26 core productions and more than 400 outreach activities staged in and around Singapore.

Since its beginning in 1977, the Singapore Arts Festival has grown from a celebration of the local arts to become a catalyst for the development of commissioned works by Singapore, Asian and international artists.

A long time supporter of the arts, Suntec Singapore has been actively promoting art events in close partnership with the National Arts Council through events such as Noise Festival, the Singapore Art Show, the Writer's Festival and the bi-annual Singapore Biennale.

"We are proud to sponsor the Singapore Arts Festival through our media space, one of the largest in Singapore," said CEO Pieter Idenburg. "Investing in the community has always been an important philosophy in the management of Suntec Singapore and we are happy to play our part in one of Asia's leading arts festival."

Now in its 32nd year, the Singapore Arts Festival is Singapore's premier arts event and one of Asia's leading arts festivals.
